

High Court Judge EuiYoung Lee, Seoul High Court, (Korea), WIN Korea Rep

About the Speaker:

Judge EuiYoung Lee is a Judge of South Korea since 2003. She has been sitting at the Seoul Central, Seoul Southern, Busan and Incheon District Courts and working for the Tax Team of Research Division at Supreme Court of Korea. She now sits at the bench dedicated to the international trade cases at the Seoul High Court. Although her main interest and specialty lies in tax law, she has experienced general cases of civil and criminal as well during her judgeship. She obtained Master of Law degrees at Seoul National University and at University of Cambridge. She was conferred PhD in Law at Seoul National University. She wrote and published a number of academic and professional articles mainly focusing on corporate tax law and international tax law. Also she often speaks at conferences held by courts and academic associations.